

Subject Line: Exciting new battlefield tours for 2016

Here at Leger, we are always looking to add new battlefield tours to our unrivalled catalogue.

In 2016 we have more than 55 tours to offer you, including 15 brand new ones. Our tours cover WWI, WWII and other wars or key moments in history.

There's something to suit everyone - no matter which conflicts touch your emotions. And all of Leger's battlefield tours are accompanied by a specialist guide.

Their knowledge, passion and enthusiasm of the key elements and places of the conflicts, greatly enhance each tour. They recreate a riveting and moving picture of the history and factual events of each battle.

2016 is also the Centenary of the start of the Battle of the Somme, so there will be many special events surrounding it. It would be an ideal time for you to enjoy a unique few days with us.

Our new tours are superb – and we're sure you will be as excited about them, as we are. Below are a few handpicked new tours we think you might find interesting.

Remember, all of our tours are available to view on our website, or in our online battlefield brochure.

The Somme Centenary Tour 2016

The centenary of the Battle of the Somme takes place on 1st July 2016 and is sure to be an emotive event. On the anniversary day, we will be in the Somme, attending some of the major sites - and having our own personal Remembrance Ceremony at a Somme battlefield site.

5-Days From £379*

Race to Remagen - Aachen to the Rhineland

The Battle for Remagen Bridge was immortalised in the Hollywood movie 'The Bridge at Remagen'. On this new tour, we look at the true story following American forces from the fighting on the Siegfried Line near Aachen, through to the Hürtgenwald forest.

4-Days From £269*

Peenemunde and the Baltic Coast

In 1936, work started at the small fishing village of Peenemunde. By 1938, a vast research facility, rocket factory and airfield was under construction. Fly out and join us on this fascinating tour, which also takes in the island of Rugen, and the Ravensbruck Concentration Camp.
